Attend this information session to learn how you can step up to the leadership challenge within local and national school systems

- Graduate degree programs in Educational Leadership (master’s and doctoral)
- Non-degree certification programs leading to state certification as a Principal or Superintendent
- The only university in the state with NCATE Accreditation (National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education)
- Flexibility of course delivery, in-person, online and hybrid classroom instruction
- Accelerated class formats
- Faculty that are practicing school leaders with extensive experience in field
