

Rio Salado College Social Responsibility Rubric

The student will demonstrate awareness of varied cultural perspectives, knowledge of the principles of civic discourse, and understanding of the impact of individual and collective action on contemporary social issues..

Scoring Levels:

4 = High level evidence of socially responsible principles and practices*

3 = Demonstrable, competent, expected evidence of socially responsible principles and practices

2 = Minimally acceptable, inconsistent evidence of socially responsible principles and practices

1 = Poor, unacceptable evidence of socially responsible principles and practices

*College Level is established at 70% or above

Dimension	4	3	2	1
Cultural Perspectives	Demonstrates a high level of awareness of the history, values, politics, communication styles, beliefs, and practices of other cultures.	Demonstrates adequate awareness of the history, values, politics, communication styles, beliefs, and practices of other cultures.	Demonstrates basic awareness of the history, values, politics, communication styles, beliefs, and practices of other cultures.	Demonstrates a low level of awareness of the history, values, politics, communication styles, beliefs, and practices of other cultures.
Civic Discourse	Demonstrates a commitment to using effective strategies to discuss topics of public concern.	Demonstrates adequate understanding of strategies for discussing topics of public concern.	Demonstrates basic understanding of effective strategies for discussing topics of public concern.	Demonstrates minimal understanding of effective strategies for discussing topics of public concern.
Social Issues	Evaluates individual/local actions in light of their potential to impact broader social issues.	Seeks to identify the consequences of individual/local actions and their impact on broader social issues.	Demonstrates basic understanding of the consequences of individual/local actions and their impact on broader social issues.	Demonstrates minimal understanding of the consequences of individual/local actions and their impact on broader social issues.